X HANDE, Mala; 11627 E. Jefferson Ave., Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan.

DETAILS:

1. In personal interview SUBJECT stated that he was born on 15 October 1911 at Prishtina, Yugoslavia. In support of this statement, SUBJECT submitted to this office a notarized document in lieu of birth certificate issued by the Pretura of Aversa on 20 Nov 53.

The Questuras of Caserta, Naples, Salerno and Bari revealed no information in contradiction to SUBJECT's statement made in interview.

2. The notarized document, referred to above, appears to substantiate SUBJECT's statement, made in interview, that he is the son of Salih and Sherife HENCI nee HALIL.

The Questuras of Caserta, Salerno, Naples and Bari disclosed no information in contradiction to SUBJECT's statement made in interview.

3. SUBJECT stated in personal interview that he married Bedrije SELIMI on 13 Aug 37 and that they have three children. A notarized document in lieu of marriage certificate issued by the Pretura of Aversa on 20 Nov 53 appears to substantiate SUBJECT's statement made in interview.

4. Although born in Yugoslavia, SUBJECT appears to be an Albanian national.

5. During personal interview SUBJECT stated that the following relatives still reside in Yugoslavia at Prishtina:

- X HENCI, Salimi nee SKENDRIV; wife; born 1919 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Hamdi; son; born 1949 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Skender; son; born 1942 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Agron; son; born 1945 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Sherife nee HALIL; mother; born 1885 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Fahmi; brother; born in 1931 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Sadri; brother; born 1919 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Nazmi; brother; born 1922 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Xhevahir; sister; born 1916 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Myradife; sister; born 1927 at Prishtina.
- X HENCI, Alije; sister; born 1934 at Prishtina.

SUBJECT stated that since he left Yugoslavia, he has not corresponded with any of his relatives.

In personal interview SUBJECT stated that he has not been directly approached by any person to persuade him to return to Albania. However, members of the Albanian Legation, Rome, have disseminated propaganda in the Refugee Camps and have informed Albanian refugees that at various times amnesties have been declared in Albania in an effort to persuade them to return.

6. In personal interview SUBJECT stated he has resided and travelled and was occupied as indicated below:

(a) 1911 to November 1944 - Prishtina, Yugoslavia; SUBJECT attended four years elementary and eight years secondary school. Upon completion, he worked as an apprentice watchmaker. SUBJECT operated his own shop from 1937 to 1944.

(b) November 1944 to November 1945 - SUBJECT joined Balli Kombetar under the leadership of ADAM SELIMI and took part in

(l) January 1952 to February 1952 - IRO Refugee Camp Mercatello, Salerno, Italy.

(m) February 1952 to date - Refugee Camp Averna, Caserta, Italy.

SUBJECT works occasionally as a watch repairman.

The Questuras of Bari, Naples, Caserta and Salerno appeared to substantiate SUBJECT's statement.

7. During personal interview of SUBJECT no physical defects were noted, and SUBJECT appeared to be mentally stable.

Local investigation disclosed no adverse information concerning SUBJECT's mental or physical health.

8. No military record is available in SUBJECT's case, however, SUBJECT stated during personal interview that he was exempted from military service because he was the head of a family. However, SUBJECT stated that he took part in guerrilla warfare against the Communists from November 1944 to November 1945.

The Questuras of Naples, Bari and Salerno make no mention of SUBJECT's military service.

9. In personal interview SUBJECT stated that he was not a member of any political party until 1941, at which time he joined the BALLI KOMBETAR (National Front) and that he still is a member of this organization. SUBJECT also stated that he is anti-Communist and fled from Yugoslavia because he was opposed to the Communist Regime.

The Questuras of Caserta and Salerno reported that SUBJECT has not been a member of, or affiliated with, any political party while in those provinces. The Questuras of Bari and Naples did not develop any information regarding SUBJECT's political history, before or after entering Italy.

*Files of this office indicate that this organization was founded in 1939 and carried on a resistance movement against the Fascists. In 1943, this group opposed the Communist forces. In 1944, when the Communists took control of Albania, this organization went into exile but continued to carry on clandestine operation in Albania. In 1949, this organization created the National Committee for Free Albania, an anti-Communist organization dedicated to the return of a non-Communist form of government to Albania.

10. In personal interview SUBJECT stated he has never been a member of any organization in Yugoslavia other than that mentioned in Item 9. (Balli Kombetar)

The Questura of Caserta reported that SUBJECT was not a member of any labor union and had never been enrolled in any organizations, associations, societies or clubs. The Questuras of Naples, Salerno and Bari did not develop any information concerning SUBJECT's organizational membership.

11. In personal interview SUBJECT stated that he had never been arrested.

The Questuras of Bari, Salerno, Naples and Caserta reported no penal record on SUBJECT.

12. In personal interview SUBJECT stated that he attended four years of elementary and eight years of secondary school.

The Questura of Caserta reveals SUBJECT attended secondary school. The Questuras of Bari, Naples and Salerno make no mention of SUBJECT's education.

13. In personal interview SUBJECT stated that he had been employed as a watchmaker from 1937 to 1944 and from 1948 to 1949 and presently is employed occasionally as a watch repairman.

The Questura of Caserta reported that SUBJECT is a watch maker. The Questuras of Bari, Naples and Salerno make no mention of SUBJECT's occupation.

14. (a) An investigation as required under Public Law 203, Section 11(a) was conducted in the provinces of Bari, Salerno, Naples and Caserta with results as indicated elsewhere in this report.

(b) There were no field investigations requested in Yugoslavia, however, a residence check was made in Belgrade with results as indicated in Item A of IRP-10A.

15. A summary statement of interview is not included in this paragraph as all pertinent information obtained in said interview conducted on 30 Jan 56 has been incorporated elsewhere in this report.

At the time he was interviewed by Raymond R. Hissgo, Investigator, IRP, Naples, SUBJECT gave the impression that he was of normal intelligence and was answering all questions truthfully.
